

December 2021

Inflation allowance

To cope with the consequences of inflation on the purchasing power of the French, the government has decided to grant an « inflation allowance », i.e. an exceptional aid of €100, which will be paid in one instalment to people who meet the eligibility criteria.

To find out more, see this news.

How to declare the inflation allowance on the social component?

Procedure for declaring the inflation allowance due to your employees on the social component :

ELEMENTS FOR COMPENSATION

Gross salary declared Net salary declared ?

COMPENSATION : 5583 , 00 ?

Benefit in kind	Amount
[Dropdown]	0.0

1 BONUSES AND INDEMNITIES ?

1 Open the « Bonuses and allowances » section by clicking on « + ».

BONUSES AND INDEMNITIES ?

Type of indemnity	Amount liable to contributions and CSG CRDS
Seniority	0.0

2 Click here to enter bonuses or compensation not liable or only liable to the "forfait social" employer's contribution or to the "CSG" supplementary social security tax/ "CRDS" social security debt retirement tax.

2 Click on the line « To enter bonuses or allowances that are not subject to or subject only to the social security or CSG/CRDS, please click here ».

BONUSES AND INDEMNITIES ?

Type of indemnity	Amount liable to contributions and CSG CRDS
Seniority	0.0

Click here to enter bonuses or compensation not liable or only liable to the "forfait social" employer's contribution or to the "CSG" supplementary social security tax/ "CRDS" social security debt retirement tax.

Indemnities not subject to contributions : 3

Of which inflation allowance : 4

Special PEPA bonus :

Compensation subject only to the "forfait social" employer's contribution :

Indemnities subject only to General Social Contribution and Social Debt Repayment Contribution :

Compensation subject only to the "CSG" supplementary social security tax/ "CRDS" social security debt retirement tax and to the "forfait social" employer's contribution :

3 In the « Allowances not subject to contributions » field, enter the amount of the inflation allowance and, if applicable, any other allowance not subject to contributions.

4 In the « Of which inflation allowance » field, also enter the amount of the inflation allowance.